   a. However, we have tabled both grants due to-
      i. Overflow Community Green Grant will not be located in UC Riverside. Thus, we need to follow up with Risk Management and ensure this is allowed. In addition, the committee is concerned about the lack of access to UCR Students.
         1. The committee voted and the grant was not approved.
   ii. Biohack Green Grant will be located online. However, we have tabled their grant application as their budget was vague and did not have a clear outline on what they will spend with GCAP’s money. In addition, their grant does not align with GCAP’s green grant guidelines.
         1. The committee voted and the grant was not approved.
2. We approved a large scale initiative (eco2go project) in collaboration with Dining Services and the office of Sustainability

I. Committee Meetings

A. Three weekly meetings held, one each week except for Christmas week
   1. Meeting every Wednesday from 6:45 to 7:30
   2. Brainstorming new organizations to feature, and who/what to include in our new weekly posting format.
   3. Working towards re-generating Instagram following through giveaways and collaborations.
   4. Re-formatting of workflow, through utilization of Trello and synchronized Google calendars.

II. Administrative Work

A. Highlander of the Week
   One-on-ones
   1. Brief Summary: Interview held with Preeti Juturu, Luis Huerta, and we are going to be posting in regards to students reaching out and applying to be featured by ASUCR.

B. Organization Interviews/Features
   1. Brief Summary: Interviews held with Cultural and Action/Awareness organizations on campus, and posting to ask organizations to contact us to be featured on our page.

C. Fact Friday
   1. Working towards making the ASUCR page more philanthropic, and focused on addressing student-related issues. For this month, in response to the new incoming students and prospective UCR students, we will be gauging our content towards that demographic.
      a) Surveying seniors about their advice for incoming freshmen.
      b) Interviewing ASUCR members about why they applied for their position.

III. Other

A. Potential Botanical Gardens
Special

1. Brief Summary: In contact with the groundskeeper of Botanical Gardens who wants to work with us to create content to get people interested in going to the garden. Photographers and videographers tasked with figuring out what potential content we can create to promote the Botanical Gardens.

B. Collaboration with Life at UCR

1. Pending giveaway to be organized with the Student Life organization, Life at UCR to work directly with those at the Undergraduate offices and work towards getting both pages exposure, as well as increasing ASUCR’s reach with incoming students.

C. Initiative to Increase Followers

1. As a result of COVID-19, retaining an audience has remained a struggle for all social media platforms. We are currently working on a campaign with our rebranding and multiple giveaways during this timeframe to increase our following vastly before the year is over.
